

Table of Contents

Preface _____	ix
Introduction _____	xi
Accountability, Transparency, and Responsibility _____	xi
 SECTION 1. THE PIVOTAL ROLE OF DIRECTORS
Chapter 1. Transforming the Dynamics of Nonprofit Boards: From Passive to Active Agencies _____	3
The Governance Environment	4
The Passive Director	7
Changing the Board Dynamics: From Passive to Active	7
Making Minimum Expectations Explicit	12
Removing the Underperforming Director	13
Forces for Change	14
Chapter 2. Reforming Board Practices _____	19
The Urban Institute Study of Directors	21
Preventive Practice	24
An Organizational Retreat	27
Chapter 3. Board Responsibility for Operational Issues _____	33
The Board's Responsibility for Execution	33
Compensation Review	36
The Compensation Committee	41
Conflicts of Interest	42
The Director's Responsibility for Endowment Risk and Return	45
Establishing Three Basic Policies	46

Chapter 4. Preparing Nonprofit Directors for the Coming Changes in Governance _____	53
Establishing the Cost Effectiveness of an Organization's Programs	54
Building a Consensus for Change	56
Selecting Board Members	57
Why Become a Director of a Nonprofit Organization?	60
Why Some Boards Work and Some Don't	62

SECTION 2. HUMAN RESOURCES

Chapter 5. Maximizing Your Human Resources _____	69
A Philosophy of Human Resource Management	69
Role of the Human Resources Department	71
The Art of Recruiting	73
Core Skills	78
Pursuing a Nonprofit Career	82
Starting Out	87
Networking	90

Chapter 6. The Executive Director: One of the Most Challenging Assignments in the Nonprofit World _____	93
Defining the Executive Director Role	93
Educating the Board	95
Establishing Compensation Policy	96
Evaluating Program Effectiveness	97
Framing Issues for the Board: Benefits	98
Cultivating Board Allies	99
The Role of Spokesperson	100
Oversight of the Hiring Process	101
Responsibility for Finances	102
A Balancing Act	103
The Executive Director's Challenge	104

Chapter 7. The Effective CFO _____	107
------------------------------------	-----

Chapter 8. The Scarcity of Development Officers _____	113
---	-----

Chapter 9. Professional Services _____	119
--	-----

The Role of the Auditor in the Wake of Sarbanes-Oxley	119
The Role of Lawyers as Gatekeepers	125

Chapter 10. The Role of Contributors _____	131
--	-----

SECTION 3. STRATEGIC ISSUES

Chapter 11. Greater Regulation of Nonprofits _____	137
Sarbanes-Oxley [SOX] and New York Stock Exchange [NYSE] Reforms of Public Corporations	140
Self-Regulation: Applicability of Corporate Reforms to the Nonprofit Sector	142

Chapter 12. Strategic Planning: A Governance Tool _____	149
The Strategic Planning Process	152
Carving Out a Strategic Niche	153
Chapter 13. The Merger Option _____	169
Chapter 14. Converting to a For-Profit Enterprise _____	175

SECTION 4. OPERATIONAL ISSUES

Chapter 15. Performance Management _____	187
Profit Motive and Profit Measure	187
Absence of a Profit Motive	188
Performance Management Defined	190
Why Performance Management?	191
Measuring Performance	192
Identifying Best Practices	193
Factors that Can't Be Quantified Still Count	195
The Availability of Comparative Data and Analysis	195
Limited Resources for Management Oversight	196
The Specific Elements of Performance Management	197
A Hypothetical Illustration of Performance Management	200
Analyzing the Financial Cost of a Program Relative to Its Achievements	205
Cause and Effect	206
The Role of Grantors in Ensuring Grantee Performance	206
Chapter 16. Depicting Performance and Financial Condition _____	211
Management Information versus Accounting	211
Full Disclosure	213
Does a Nonprofit Need a Bottom Line?	213
Multiple Factors Depict Organizational Performance and Finances	215
A Reporting System for Management and the Board	216
A Balanced Budget Masks Precarious Financial Condition	217
Program Evaluation	219
Annual Operating Results	220
Sources and Uses of Cash	221
Capital Condition	223
Risk Management Issues	224
Management Report	225
The Role of the Board Audit Committee	225
The Relationship of the Independent Auditor to the Audit Committee	226
Conclusions	228
Chapter 17. Navigating Economic Downturns _____	231
Chapter 18. Activity-Based Cost Reduction _____	237
Activity-Based Cost Reduction At Work	239
Three Principles of Cost Reduction	241

A Managerial Safeguard	244
Implementing Reductions	245
Making Reductions Stick	247
Chapter 19. The Role of Public Relations	249
Chapter 20. A Marketing Approach to Fundraising	253
The Sesame Street Funding War	254
Assessing the Potential to Raise Money	257
Positioning Your Appeal	258
Communicating Your Appeal	258
Coordination and Diversification	259
Market Feedback	259
Government: A Special Relationship in Jeopardy	260
Government Funding: Special Costs and Risks	261
Building an Organization to Seek Government Funds	263
Foundation Grants	264
Corporate Support	268
Individual Contributors	271
Campaigns Aimed at a Cohesive Constituency	271
The Characteristics of a Successful Fundraising Campaign	273
The Importance of Planning	281
Chapter 21. Generating Earned Income	295
The Need for New Revenue Sources	296
Opportunities for Earned Income	297
Starting Point: Part of the Value Scheme	298
Invest or License?	301
Developing Marketing Orientation	301
Capitalizing on Comparative Advantage	302
Fears of Commercialism	302
Tax Considerations	307
Legal Forms of Profit-Making Activities	308
Operational Considerations in Organizing Profit-Making Activities	309
Financing Self-Generated Revenues	313
Financing Options	313
Licensing	315
Joint Ventures	316
The Business Skills of Financing Sources	317
Shared Values	318
A POSTSCRIPT—LOOKING AHEAD	321
INDEX	323